

2005 - 2006

chamber music @ ucla

... featuring UCLA's world-famous FACULTY and emerging STUDENT ARTISTS with special guests. All concerts at 8:00 p.m. in Schoenberg Hall, except Oct. 14 & 15.

Admission is $12 (general),

$7 (students and senior citizens).

Friday & Saturday, Oct. 14 & 15

at Jan Popper Theater

Beethoven: The Complete Works for Cello and Piano

Yehuda Hanani and Walter Ponce

Acclaimed artists, Israeli cellist Yehuda Hanani and Bolivian pianist Walter Ponce, join their talents in the performance of the five sonatas and three variations for cello and piano by Beethoven.

Monday, Nov. 21

A Little Night Music with Jens Lindemann and Friends!!!

Jens Lindemann, world-renowned trumpet soloist and UCLA professor, hosts a chamber music evening of extraordinary virtuosity and collaboration featuring a variety of musical styles and periods from around the world. Joined by UCLA students and fellow faculty members Doug Masek (saxophone), Bobby Rodriguez (Latin jazz trumpet), Jennifer Snow (piano) and more.

Tuesday, Nov. 29

Michael Dean, bass-baritone, with Rakefet Hak, piano

American bass-baritone Michael Dean is in demand worldwide both in concert and operatic repertoire, appearing with the leading opera companies and orchestras of the U.S. and Europe. His powerful voice and commanding stage presence have garnered him wide acclaim from audiences and critics alike. Rakefet Hak has quickly established a reputation as one of the most sought after collaborative pianists. As the principal Metropolitan Opera pianist, she has performed with the leading singers of our time.

Thursday, March 9

Beauty, Depth and Revelations: UCLA Composers

Roger Bourland: Four Xmas Songs (premiere)

Rufus Wainwright: Three Songs (arr. by Bourland)

Mark Carlson:

After the Sun Has Set (four songs on sonnets by Edna St. Vincent Millay) for mezzo-soprano, 2 oboes, clarinet, bass clarinet, 2 bassoons, tenor saxophone, 2 horns, harp, double bass

Paul Chihara:

Amatsu Kaze ("Winds of Heaven" seven haiku, from Basho to Taeka) for soprano, flute, saxophone, violin, violoncello, and piano

David S. Lefkowitz:

Surfer's Guide for the Perplexed (or: Jonah on the Raging Sea) for flute, saxophone, violin, violoncello, and piano

Ian Krouse: Songs

Performed by UCLA Music Department Faculty Juliana Gondek (soprano), Antonio Lysy (cello), Doug Masek (saxophone), Walter Ponce (piano), Neal Stulberg (piano), and Guests.

Thursday, April 20

Grand Duo: Chalifour and Lysy

Two top Canadian artists, living in Los Angeles join forces for a demanding, colorful and virtuoso program of music for violin and cello. From perfumed French impressionism to raunchy Hungarian gypsy melodies to romantic Russian sentiment - Martin Chalifour (violin), and Antonio Lysy (cello), play works by Ravel, Kodaly, and Gliere.

Thursday, May 4

Gary Gray with Old and Young Friends

Gary Gray, versatile professor and admired clarinet soloist, presents sparkling musical gems, with colleagues violist Paul Coletti, pianist Walter Ponce, and others.

Max Bruch:

Four Pieces for clarinet, viola, and piano, Op. 83

Francis Poulenc:

Sonata for clarinet and piano (1961)

...and other surprises, to be announced

Thursday, May 11

Paul Coletti and The Rising Strings of the New UCLA

Bohuslav Martinu: Three Madrigals for Violin and Viola

Lorenz Gamma and Paul Coletti

Johannes Brahms:

Quintet for Strings in G major, Op. 111 (1891)

Lindsay Deutsch and Hyunsil Roh, violins
Paul Coletti and Minor Wetzell, violas
Antonio Lysy, violoncello

Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy:

Octet in E-flat Major, Op. 20 (1825)
Ida Levin, Antonio Lysy, and Paul Coletti

...and award winning students from the new UCLA string program.

Tuesday, May 23

Encounters: Pacific Serenades

The award-winning ensemble, Pacific Serenades, ends its UCLA residency in a program of piano quartets by faculty composers Roger Bourland and Mark Carlson, and by student composers.

Information

UCLA Department of Music
<http://www.music.ucla.edu>

UCLA Central Ticket Office
(310) 825-2101

Programs and dates subject to change.

